CommunityAmerica Credit Union Contributes $10,000 to Platte County Historical Society

Grant will be used for creation of TWA Display

LENEXA, Kan. (January 26, 2004) — CommunityAmerica Credit Union has donated $10,000 to the Platte County Historical Society for the construction of a display showcasing the history of TWA. The display will be at the KCI Expo Center located near Kansas City International Airport.

“CommunityAmerica’s relationship with TWA began 64 years ago,” said Dennis Pierce, CommunityAmerica CEO. “TWA holds an important place in Kansas City’s history and we are pleased to provide this grant that will go to creating a home for this piece of our city’s past.”

A check presentation was held at 3 p.m. on Jan. 22 at the KCI Expo Center located at 11730 N. Ambassador Drive.

“We are grateful for this contribution from CommunityAmerica,” said Diane Pepper, Platte County Historical Society president. “The addition of a display of TWA memorabilia is an exciting step forward in allowing us to highlight the area’s rich history.”

CommunityAmerica Credit Union began on March 19, 1940 as TWA Club Credit Union. TWA pilot George Duvall founded the credit union with a working capital of only $1,069. Today, CommunityAmerica is the Midwest’s largest credit union with assets exceeding $1 billion.

About CommunityAmerica Credit Union

CommunityAmerica Credit Union (www.cacu.com) is a Missouri state-chartered credit union founded in 1940. Today, it is the fifth largest Kansas City-based financial institution with nearly 126,000 members nationwide. Headquartered in Lenexa, Kansas, CommunityAmerica has nine branches in the Kansas City area. New branches feature an abundance of natural light, circular service counters, Internet kiosks, face-to-face monitors at drive-thru lanes to facilitate communication, and a community room for customer-owners and local community groups to use for meetings and gatherings.
